ISONZO PEOPLE WELCOME ITALIANS

A scene in the Isonzo district when the long-expected Italian 100k (left). The Italian soldiers were hailed as the "redeemers" of the section which for as far back as the inhabitants could remember was under Austrian rule. Everywhere the inhabitants turned out to give them fitting greetings. The photograph shows women giving flowers to the Italian troops.

"I don't think my systemographer will get a job through the recommendation I gave him— I didn't see him a good one"— yes, but he took it down and typed it himself. And it was full of errors.

Cling to Dreams

I could give up tobacco and a school and clean collar and servants and everything you could think of—but not dreams. Without them the earth is just a sort of backyard of a place; and with them, an infinite garden.— W. J. Locke, in Septimus.

Up-to-Date Gypsies

An up-to-date gypsy band which stopped in Pierre R. D. traveled by auto and not by a dingy wagon train. There was no horse trailer, but the women still followed their traditional business of fortune telling.

City Editor—"You interviewed Mrs. Gibbs on the subject of course?" Reporter—"Well, not exactly. I saw the lady but she hadn't a word to say." City Editor—"Hadn't a word to say? Why, what did she die?"

Different Times

"The girls need to keep me waiting when I drive up in a buggy, I notice they never keep you waiting long when you drive up in a motor car." "Why is that?" "The girls know how quickly a model gets out of date as well as we do."

Impossible

"The great trouble with the American people is that they eat too much," said the doctor. "Nonsense," retorted the statistical person. "I can easily produce figures to prove that one-third of the American people live in boarding houses."—Judge.

Goose Chase

A lady had been looking for a friend for a long time without success. Finally she came upon her in an unexpected way. "Well," she exclaimed, "I've been on a perfect wild goose chase all day long but, thank goodness, I've found you at last."

A Menace to the Motorist

Lawyer—"Judge, I want you to see this man who was knocked down by my client's car." Judge—"Was he?" "Yes?" "Lawyer—"He had a nail in his clothes and it punctured a new tire."—Topsels Journal.

Ordinary Advice

"One reason," said Uncle Eben, "why more advice doesn't get took, is that de man givin it don't seem so anxious to help as he is to put his own self on de back an' show off how much he knows."

To Soften Lemons

Lemons that have become hard and dry can be made soft and juicy again by putting them into a pan of hot water and letting them remain at almost the same temperature without boiling for two hours.

Applause at a Concert

"You seem to enjoy the heavy Wagnerian numbers on the program?" "I don't." "Then why do you applaud so strongly?" "I want to hear the pretty little pieces they always play for us cores."

of those present have been adherents of the Republican party.

It would be interesting to know the political allegiance of the forty-eight who voted against the resolution, one would like to know how many of them are staunchly Republican, how many are partisans of foreign-belle friends and how many are "pence at any price" men. It is evident that 215 out of the 283 who voted believe in "defense of American rights."

There is a lesson in this evidently non-partisan expression by certain public utility associations in this and other states, as well as for those who have disapproved of the president's treatment of the Mexican and German relations to this country.

BUMPED TOM GORDON

According to the information given, bought 128 bushels of wheat of a neighbor of his named James Walker, paying him 80 cents a bushel for it. The grain was loaded in a car at Dawson and Adams went to thriving Tom Junction and filled the car as a full one. With this bill of lading he made a sale to J. T. Gordon, representing that there were about 1,100 bushels in the car, and receiving over $100 for the same.

Adams immediately had business at other places, and "beat it" for the fall and unaccounted when the shortage was discovered he was miles and miles away, but it is reported he has been seen in Omaha recently and will soon be in the hands of the railroad.

HIS YELLOW STREAK

program is announced for him. Let Dickie take the sensational nomination—he does not want it anyway. But what he would be charged to receive would be the complimentary support of Missouri for the Republican presidential nomination in the next Republican national convention.

Of course, such support would be empty of immediate results, but it would feed the Hadley vanity, and would pave the way for an appointment in case of the election of the Republican nominee.

The whole play is as transparent as to be pitiful. Those who always felt that there was a yellow streak a yard wide running down the Hadley back have had their convictions simply justified.—Henry County Democrat.

ANSWER SATISFACTORY

"Your honor," replied the husband, "I didn't like to interrupt the lady."

Lights Save Lives

That fully 25 per cent of the accidents to workmen are caused by insufficient lighting for men working at night is the opinion of experts who have made a study of the subject. It is estimated that $250,000,000
